

COSIG Co-Occurring Clinical Competency
Module 3: Substance Use Disorders and Mental Illness
Post-Test

Name: _____ Date: _____

1. Diabetes is recorded on Axis _____
2. Housing Problems are considered an Axis _____ problem
3. Schizophrenia is an Axis _____ problem
4. Substance Use Disorders are listed as an Axis _____ problem
5. Problems with access to housing is considered an Axis _____ problem
6. A numerical score that reflects overall level of functioning belongs in Axis _____
7. Personality Disorders are considered Axis _____ disorders
8. Substance Abuse Criteria include the following:
  - a. Failure to fulfill obligations
  - b. Substance related legal problems
  - c. Unsuccessful attempt to cut down
  - d. Recurrent use in physically hazardous situations
  - e. Physical withdrawal
  - f. a through d
9. A participant in a methadone maintenance program is said to be on Agonist Therapy.
  - a. True
  - b. False
10. Abstinence on the part of an individual while incarcerated is coded differently from abstinence achieved while not in a controlled environment.
  - a. True
  - b. False
11. Dependence on a substance always involves the presence of tolerance and withdrawal.
  - a. True
  - b. False
12. Withdrawal is a condition that causes distress to the individual and should be considered life-threatening.
  - a. True
  - b. False