

COSIG Co-Occurring Clinical Competency
Module 4: Addiction and Drugs of Abuse
Post-Test

Name: _____ Date: _____

1. Individuals with co-occurring disorders are more vulnerable to the damaging effects of drugs of abuse and experience more serious consequences.
 - a. True
 - b. False

2. Depression and anxiety are natural consequences of prolonged drug and alcohol abuse.
 - a. True
 - b. False

3. The following are risk factors for addiction:
 - a. Family history
 - b. Impoverished environment
 - c. Co-occurring disorders
 - d. a and c
 - e. All of the above

4. Drugs affect brain function by altering the normal functioning of neurotransmitters.
 - a. True
 - b. False

5. Match the classification (by number) listed on the right to each drug listed on the left.

Drug	Class. No.	Classification
LSD		1. Narcotics
Heroin		2. Stimulants
Marijuana		3. Depressants
Cocaine		4. Cannabis
Xanax		5. Hallucinogens
Hashish		6. Inhalants
Nitrous Oxide
Methadone
PCP
Gasoline
Hydrocodone
Ecstasy
Methamphetamine		